AMENDED AT CONFERENCE 2012
THE COMPANIES LAW (CHAPTER 69)
Company Limited by Guarantee

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION
(Approved at Conference, January 2, 1979)

JAMAICA TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION (J.T.A.)

1. The name of the Company is "JAMAICA TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION (J.T.A.), herein after referred to as "The Association".

2. It shall be non-sectarian, non-political and non-partisan in character.

3. The registered office of the Association will be situated at 97B Church Street in Kingston or in such other town or place in Jamaica as may, from time to time, be determined by the Association.

4. The Association is established to achieve any or all of the following objects as may from time to time be reasonably practicable:

   (1) To promote, within its competence, the educational interest of the country and keep the public informed concerning educational matters of importance and/or urgency;

   (2) To promote and maintain the unity of the teaching profession, widen the scope of its usefulness, and safeguard the interests of those comprising its membership;

   (3) To aid the achievement and maintenance of high professional, ethical and moral standards among all its membership;

   (4) To consider and make representations to appropriate authorities on matters of common interest to its members;

   (5) To afford the Ministry of Education and other Educational Authorities the benefit of teachers’ collective ideas, opinions and experiences on educational questions and matters of common interest to its membership;

   (6) To keep under scrutiny and consideration the operations of the Education Laws, for the time being in force, and all Rules, Regulations and Policies which govern or touch and concern the Education sector arising therefrom so as to ensure that they serve the best interests of education;

   (7) To provide social facilities and amenities for the use of its members; and

   (8) To establish and maintain relationship with other regional and international teacher organizations.

5. In pursuance of the abovementioned objects The Association shall be empowered to do any or all of the following acts:
(1) To acquire, receive, hold and administer property in the interest and for the benefit of its members.

(2) To engage in business for the benefit of the Association and its members.

(3) To hold or promote lawful competitions of any description for such purpose as it deems appropriate or necessary.

(4) To advertise or promote the sale of any publication issued by it or in which it may have a legal or beneficial interest.

(5) To produce, manage, and present plays, concerts, shows, exhibitions, or other entertainment.

(6) To construct and maintain or alter any structure, building, work and plant necessary or convenient for the objects of The Association.

(7) To apply for, take out, purchase or otherwise acquire and operate any powers, rights, licenses or concessions statutory or otherwise which may be useful for the Association's objects and the exercise of its powers hereunder.

(8) To mortgage, sell, let, lease, or hire, give in exchange or dispose of the whole or any part of the real and personal property of the Association on such terms as The Association shall determine.

(9) To pay for any services rendered to The Association in such manner and on such terms as may generally be determined by the Association.

(10) To invest and deal with the monies of The Association, not immediately required, in such manner as may be from time to time determined.

(11) To borrow and raise money in such manner as The Association shall think fit and in particular by the issue of debenture stock perpetual or redeemable and to secure the repayment of any monies borrowed or raised or owing by The Association by mortgage charge or lien upon the whole or any part of The Association's property or assets (whether present or future) and also by a similar mortgage charge of lien to secure and guarantee the performance by The Association of any obligations or liability it may undertake. To draw, make, accept, endorse discounts, execute and issue all instruments both negotiable and non-negotiable and transferable and non-transferable including promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of laden, warrants and debentures and bonds.

(12) To lend and advance money or give credit to members and officers of The Association on such terms as may be thought fit and to give guarantees to or receive guarantees from such persons and to become or provide security for any such persons.

(13) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local or otherwise), or any companies, firms or persons that may seem conducive to the attainment of The Association's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, company, firm or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions which the Association may think desirable and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges and concessions.

(14) To pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion and incorporation of the Association or to contract with any person, firm, company or other Teachers' Organisation to pay the same and to pay commission to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, selling or guaranteeing the subscription of any debentures or securities of this Association.

(15) To sell and buy merchandise of any and every description.

(16) To undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking whereof may seem desirable either gratuitously or otherwise.

(17) To amalgamate with any other Teachers' Organizations or unions in Jamaica if considered in the interests of The Association.

(18) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any one or more of them.

6. The income and property of The Association, whosoever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of The Association as set forth in this Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by ways of dividends, bonus, or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to the Members of The Association PROVIDED THAT nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of remuneration to any officer or servant of The Association, or of interest at a rate not exceeding twenty percent per annum on money lent, or of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any Member of the Association, or of any sums payable to any public company including a company of which a Member of the Council of Management or governing body of The Association may be a Member holding no more than one-hundredth part of the share capital in which case such Member shall not be bound to account for any share of profits he may receive in respect of such payment.

7. No Member of the Council of Management or governing body of The Association shall be appointed to any salaried office of The Association or any office of The Association paid by fees and no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by The Association to any member of The Association’s said Council or governing body SAVE AND EXCEPT for the payment of out-of-pocket expenses, interest at the rate aforesaid on money lent or the reasonable and proper rent for premises let by the said member.

8. Every Full Member of the Association as defined in the Articles of Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of The Association in the event of the same being wound up during the time that he/she is a member, or within one year afterwards for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before the time at which he/she ceases to be a Member, and of the costs associated with such winding up, and for adjustment of the contributories amongst themselves such amount as may be required not exceeding $100.00.
9. If upon winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Association, but if and so far as effect can be given thereto shall be given or transferred to some other Teachers' Organisation or institution having objects similar to the objects of the Association, to be determined by the members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution, and in default thereof by such Judge of the High Court of Jamaica as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to the aforesaid provisions then to some charitable entity for the benefit of teachers and their dependents.

We the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed hereto, are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of the Memorandum of Association.

(7) A District Association shall work in close consultation with the Parish Association of which it forms part.

(8) A District Association shall have the right to elect one member to the General Council of the Association.

(9) A District Association shall have the right to name at least one representative to the Executive of the Parish Association.

(10) A District Association shall be entitled to be represented by delegates at the Annual Conference or Special Conference of the Parent Association in the proportion of one delegate for every ten full members but not exceeding a total of fifteen (15) delegates. It shall also be entitled to have half as many observers as delegates to Conference but observers shall not have the right to vote.

(11) A District Association that violates any of the principles, rules or regulations of the Parent Association may be dissolved by the General Council and the matter referred to the Parish Association for further action.

8.0 CONTACT TEACHERS

Contact Teachers are members elected annually by JTA members in schools to be the liaison persons between the JTA Secretariat and members in schools.

9.0 AFFILIATES

The Council may recognise as an Affiliate of the Association on such terms and conditions as it deems fit any group of persons who may or may not be members of the Association but whose objectives, activities and procedures are acceptable to the Association. Applications for Affiliation shall be made in writing. An affiliate Group is entitled to representation on General Council by one member without the right to vote.

10. INTEREST GROUPS

Interest Groups shall consist of any group of twenty or more members of the Association who through special interest find it necessary to meet. Such groups may be recognised by the Association. Their objectives, rules and regulations shall be approved by the General Council as a condition of recognition by the Association.

An interest Group is entitled to one (1) representative on General Council with the right to vote.
11.0 STUDENT GROUPS

Student Groups shall consist of at least twenty (20) student members in a teacher training institution. The group shall be approved by the General Council and each Student Group is entitled to be represented at Conference and on General Council without the right to vote.

12.0 PART IV - ADMINISTRATION

The following groups and individuals shall be responsible for the administration of the Association: The Annual Conference, Special Conference, the General Council, the Committees, Officers and Administrative Personnel.

13.0 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

(1) The Annual Conference is the Annual General Meeting of the Association and the supreme authority on all matters.

(2) Composition. It shall consist of the officers and administrative personnel, the General Council, Delegates and observers from District Associations and representatives from student groups and affiliates.

(3) Meetings. The Conference shall normally meet during the third full week in August each year but may be convened at any time and place decided upon by the Conference itself or by the General Council, Central Executive or the President acting on their behalf. Twenty-one days notice at least specifying the place, date, and time of the conference shall be given to Secretaries of District Associations, Delegates and Representatives for the convening of any Annual Conference. The accidental omission of notice or its non-receipt by Secretaries, Delegates or Representatives shall not invalidate the proceeding of any Annual Conference.

(4) Duties. Without prejudice to other business the Annual Conference shall –

(a) Receive and consider the Association's financial statements, an Auditor's Report, the Budget for the ensuing year, the Secretary-General's Report and the President's Report.

(b) Invest a President and recognise a President-Elect and Immediate Past President.

(c) Approve appointments of a General Council

(d) Appoint Auditors

(e) Transact any other business forming part of the agenda falling within its discretion.

(5) Procedure. The procedure for the conduct of Conference shall be as set out in the JTA Standing Orders (Appendix).
(6) Quorum. The quorum for any Annual Conference shall be not less than 70 delegates of whom not less than 15 shall be members of the General Council. No business transacted by an Annual Conference shall be valid unless there is a quorum as set out in these Articles, provided, however, that Conference shall have the power to validate such business within its direction when properly constituted.

(7) Voting. No person other than delegates and members of Council present is eligible to vote at any Annual Conference and votes shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedure-

(a) At an Annual Conference, every question shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands, and unless a poll be demanded or directed by the Chairman, a declaration by the Chairman that a Resolution has been carried or not carried, by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the facts without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such Resolution. Any member present and entitled to vote may demand a poll.

(b) If a poll be demanded or directed in the manner above-mentioned it shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chairman may appoint and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the Resolution of the Association in General Meeting.

(c) In case of any disputes as to the admission or rejection of any vote the Chairman shall determine the same and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive. In the case of an equality of votes at any Meeting whether upon a show of hands or a poll the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

(d) A poll demanded upon election of a Chairman or upon a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

(e) Upon a show of hands or upon a poll every person present and entitled to a vote shall have one vote only.

(8) Adjournments. The President and, in his absence, President Elect or the Immediate Past President in that order may, with the consent of any Meeting and shall if so directed by the Meeting, adjourn any Meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a Meeting is adjourned for ten days or more Notice of the adjourned Meeting shall be given as in the case of an original Meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned Meeting.
14.0 SPECIAL CONFERENCE

(1) Special Conference is any General Meeting of the Association other than the Annual Conference and its composition shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference of the year in which it is held.

(2) The method by which a Special Conference is convened, the quorum required, special powers and discretion exercisable and procedures shall be similar to those which apply to the Annual conference, provided that in cases of extreme emergency as determined by Central Executive, a Special Conference may be convened on a notice of less than twenty-one days.

(3) A Special Conference may also be convened at the discretion of the President or the written request of not less than Five Hundred (500) Full members of the Association, or not less than Fifty percent (50%) of the members of Central Executive or the General Council, addressed to the Secretary General not less than 14 days prior to the date proposed for the Special Conference.

(4) The business of Special Conference shall be limited solely to the matter or matters on the agenda accompanying the notice convening the meeting.

(5) Every question that shall arise at a Special Conference shall be decided in accordance with 13(7) above.
