*A 25% tuition savings and a tuition grant of up to $3,000 for course-based bachelor's and master's programs or up to $5,000 for course-based doctoral programs are available to eligible new students who are members of Caribbean Union of Teachers (CUT) and who enroll and start classes between July 1, 2023 and December 31, 2023. The grant is currently being evaluated for new students starting in January 2024. No tuition savings or tuition grant will be made retroactively. The tuition grant excludes the FNP specialization in the MSN program, accelerated specializations and the One-Credit track in the MSEd program, and the Self-Designed specializations in the MSEd, PhD in Management, and PhD in Public Health programs. The tuition grant is awarded as a tuition savings of up to $500 for up to six consecutive terms for bachelor's and master's programs and up to ten consecutive terms for doctoral programs, beginning with the first term of enrollment, until the entire tuition grant has been earned or the student is no longer eligible. Students must be enrolled continuously (without break) to receive the full tuition grant. Tuition grants and tuition savings are applicable to tuition only and cannot be combined with any other tuition savings benefit. The tuition grant is a noncash award, and in no event will the recipient receive a check or other disbursement of money pursuant to this tuition grant. The tuition grant may only be used for credit-bearing courses within the recipient's program; non-credit courses are not permitted under the tuition grant. Any changes that Walden makes to tuition savings, grants, or scholarship offerings will affect new students/recipients. All tuition savings, grants, or scholarships are subject to specific eligibility requirements. Contact a Walden University Enrollment Specialist for details.

†A 50% tuition reduction is available to eligible new students who are members of Caribbean Union of Teachers (CUT) who enroll in Walden's BS in Early Childhood Studies or MS in Early Childhood Studies in the Tempo Learning® format and start classes before December 31, 2023. No tuition reduction will be made retroactively. Tuition reductions are applicable to tuition only and do not apply toward books, materials, and other supplies or fees needed for a course. Walden may change the tuition reduction offered hereunder at any time, but such change will not affect the tuition reduction for students who are currently enrolled at Walden and using the existing tuition reduction. This offer cannot be used by a student in combination with any other tuition reduction benefit. All tuition reductions, grants, or scholarships are subject to specific eligibility requirements. Contact a Walden University Enrollment Specialist for details.
